

Free Training Camp For Mathematical Olympiad

Ramanujan School of Mathematics has decided to organise a training camp for students appearing in Regional Mathematical Olympiad, free of cost to mark the birthday anniversary of Great Mathematician Srinivas Ramanujan. For this purpose an office has been opened in Ramna Road near Patna College between 10 AM to 12.

Giving this information the Convenor of the organisation Mr. Pranav Kumar said the renowned young mathematician, Anand Kumar and other scholars would give lectures in this camp.
